PRIVACY POLICY

Last Updated February 2026

Introduction

1. Purpose of this Privacy Policy

- 1.1 This is a Privacy Policy of Stoneweg Group. The term "Stoneweg Group" shall be defined as Stoneweg Management SA any of its direct and indirect subsidiaries, any entity that directly or indirectly controls Stoneweg Management SA or the funds and the mandates under the management of any such entities, as applicable (the "Privacy Policy").
- 1.2 We, the controller ("we", "us", as detailed in each Processing-Specific Section), are committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal data.
- 1.3 We will comply with the following data protection principles when gathering and using personal data:
 - we will process personal data lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner;
 - we will collect personal data for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes only, and will not process it in a way that is incompatible with those legitimate purposes;
 - we will only process the personal data that is adequate, relevant and necessary for the relevant purposes;
 - we will keep accurate and up to date personal data and take reasonable steps to ensure that inaccurate personal data is deleted or corrected without delay;
 - we will keep personal data in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the information is processed; and
 - we will take appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure that personal data is kept secure and protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing, and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.
- 1.4 This Privacy Policy describes how we collect and use personal data concerning various categories of individuals (within each category, the "Relevant Individuals" or "you"), and sets out the personal data we receive from you and how we process it in accordance with applicable data protection legislation, including Regulation (EU) 2016/679 – The General Data Protection Regulation 2016, the UK Data Protection Act 2018 and the Swiss Federal Act on Data Protection 2020 ("Data Protection Law"). When we engage in marketing activities with you, the provision of the Stoneweg Marketing Privacy Policy (available here) will apply.
- 1.5 It applies to all Relevant Individuals located in the European Union (the "EU"), the United Kingdom (the "UK") or Switzerland to whom the Data Protection Laws would otherwise apply.
- 1.6 This Privacy Policy is divided into (i) a General Section, which addresses all aspects which are common to all categories of Relevant Individuals and all processing undertaken by us and (ii) Processing-Specific Sections, which address the specific details to each category, and namely:
 - 1.6.1 Current and Prospective Investors at Appendix 1;
 - 1.6.2 Tenants at Appendix 2; and
 - 1.6.3 Suppliers and Contractors at Appendix 3.

1.7 We reserve the right to update this Privacy Policy at any time and we will provide you with a new privacy policy if we make any substantial updates.

General Section

2. Your Personal Data

2.1 It is necessary for us to process certain personal data concerning you. Except as specifically indicated in the Processing-Specific Sections, personal data we hold and process will only be used within the Stoneweg Group.

3. How your information will be used

3.1 The information we hold and process in connection with this Privacy Policy will only be used for specific purposes, as detailed in the relevant Processing-Specific Section (each, within the relevant Processing-Specific Section, "Services"). If required, we will request your prior consent, which you will remain free to give and withdraw at any time.

3.2 If in the future we intend to process your personal data for a purpose other than that for which it was collected we will provide you with information on that purpose and any other relevant information.

4. How is your personal data collected?

4.1 Personal data" relates to information that can be used to directly or indirectly identify you. Personal data also includes anonymous information that is linked to information that can be used to directly or indirectly identify you. Personal data does not include information that has been irreversibly anonymised or aggregated so that it can no longer enable us, whether in combination with other information or otherwise, to identify you.

4.2 For the purposes of the Services provided to Relevant Individuals covered by this Privacy Policy, we will collect the personal data either from you or from other sources, as detailed in the relevant Processing-Specific Section.

4.3 Unless specified in the relevant Processing-Specific Section, we do not collect any special categories of personal data about you (this includes details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sex life, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic and biometric data).

4.4 If required, for the sole purpose of compliance with our legal undertakings pertaining to Know Your Client (KYC), Anti-Money Laundering (AML) and Combating of Financing of Terrorism (CFT), we may process personal data which may be connected to your criminal convictions and offences.

5. Legal basis for processing

- 5.1 We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. In connection with the Services, we will rely on:
- 5.1.1 our legitimate interests (or those of a third party), where your fundamental rights do not override those interests;
 - 5.1.2 the performance of a contract;
 - 5.1.3 compliance with the law; or
 - 5.1.4 where required by law, your consent.

For more information, you may consult the At A Glance table detailed in the relevant Category-Specific Section relating to you.

- 5.2 Please note that we may process your personal data using more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data.
- 5.3 We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so. Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by applicable data protection legislation.

6 How we may share your information

- 6.1 We may share your personal data with third parties as indicated in each relevant Processing-Specific Section. All our third-party service providers and other entities in the Stoneweg Group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal data in line with our policies.
- 6.2 Unless as specified in each relevant Processing-Specific Section, we do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.
- 6.3 If we wish to sell or buy any business or assets, we may disclose your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets. In addition, if Stoneweg European Holdings Limited or substantially all its assets are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data held by it about its clients will be one of the transferred assets.
- 6.4 We may also need to share your personal data if we are under a duty to disclose such personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation, or in order to enforce or apply our terms of use and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property, or safety of our customers, or others.

7 Retention of personal data

- 7.1 We retain data for as long as is reasonable for the original purpose for which it was collected and for furthering our legitimate interests.
- 7.2 To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider:
 - 7.2.1 the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data;
 - 7.2.2 the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data;
 - 7.2.3 the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means; and
 - 7.2.4 the applicable legal requirements.
- 7.3 For further information as to any specific retention periods that might apply to the personal data we hold about you, please contact us using the details set out in the "Contact Us" section.

8 International Data Transfers

- 8.1 The data that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). In some cases, those countries do not provide an adequate level of protection for personal information, or do not benefit from an adequacy determination or decision by applicable governing bodies (e.g., the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner, EU Commission, etc.). In such cases, we take steps in line with data protection laws to adequately protect your personal information, including (if applicable) through the use of model contracts under which the recipient commits to continue to use that data in accordance with EU data protection standards.

9 Your Rights

- 9.1 The GDPR, and other applicable data protection legislation gives you certain specific rights relating to your personal data which are set out below:
 - a) Access – you have the right to access your personal data and certain information about how and why we are processing it;
 - b) Rectification – you have the right to have any inaccurate or incomplete personal data rectified without undue delay;
 - c) Erasure – sometimes called the 'right to be forgotten', in certain circumstances, you have the right to have your personal data erased without undue delay;
 - d) Restriction - in certain circumstances, you have the right to have the processing of your personal data by us restricted;
 - e) Data portability - where the processing is carried out under the legal basis of your consent or the necessity to perform a contract with you, and is carried out by automated means, you have the right to receive the personal data concerning you that you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly-used and machine-readable format and the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance; and
 - f) Objection - in certain circumstances, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data carried out by us or on our behalf.

STONEWEG

- 9.2 Please note that not all these rights are absolute, and they do not apply in all circumstances. However, you are always welcome to contact us with any request relating to processing of your personal data and, even if we are not obliged by law to comply with your request, we will do everything reasonable to accommodate your wishes.
- 9.3 It is also important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your working relationship with us.

10 Information Security

- 10.1 We have implemented appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk presented by the processing we carry out to protect the confidentiality, integrity and availability of your personal data and to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing and accidental loss, destruction or damage. These measures include:
- Physical safeguards, such as locked doors and file cabinets and controlled access to our facilities.
 - Technological safeguards, such as use of anti-virus and endpoint protection software, encryption, and monitoring of our systems and data centres to ensure compliance with our security policies.
 - Organisational safeguards, through training and awareness programs on security and privacy, to ensure employees understand the importance and means by which they must protect personal data, as well as through privacy policies and policy standards that govern how we treat personal data.

11 Contact Us

- 11.1 If you would like further information on anything in this Privacy Policy, for all questions or concerns you have about your personal data, or if you would like to exercise any of your rights as a data subject, please contact GDPR Central Representative named at the top of this Privacy Policy at: 1st Floor, 5th Floor, Minerva House, 29 East Parade, Leeds, LS1 5PS, United Kingdom or Privacy.eu@stoneweg.com.

12 Making A Complaint

- 12.1 If you think we have not complied with the requirements of the GDPR as it applies to your personal data, please contact us using the contact information above.
- 12.2 You also have a right to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority. You can find details of the EU and UK supervisory authorities here: https://ec.europa.eu/justice/article-29/structure/data-protection-authorities/index_en.htm
- 12.3 Any Swiss complaints can be lodged with the Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner. Please find further information here: Welcome to the FDPIC.
